Subject: Sit Rep #99: Freedom Convoy 2022- National Capital Region 2022-01-28 to 2022-02-08

Situation as of 1705hrs on 2022-02-08

Event Overview:

- No demonstrators reported to be on Parliament Hill at this time.
- Approximately 50 demonstrators on Wellington St. and in the downtown core.
- OPS estimate that there are 500 trucks in the downtown core.

Operational Information:

- Social media users have been calling for Canadian law enforcement and government officials to be "doxxed"[1] and attacked, following Ottawa Police Service (OPS) Chief SLOLY's statement that OPS will collect the personal information of those in the freedom convoy who are conducting "unlawful activity".

- CIG Open Source reports that the Telegram account associated to Personal Info. posted:

- "No update or new information on any negotiations- not a good sign"

- CIG received information from FPNI IMCIT that a tweet was posted advising people to use the Bridgefy app to communicate if the internet goes down.

- Alberta Premier Jason KENNEY is expected to deliver an announcement at 1700 hours EST. Chatter about this on social media could generate more support for further protests.

- s.37 [redacted]

Operational Planning:

- Nil updates at this time.

Protective Clients and Protective Sites:

- Rideau Hall vehicle diversion strategy has been implemented, with OPS support. The intent is to redirect protest traffic, utilizing static PC's and concrete barriers, from the Rideau Hall area.

Communications:

- A virtual press conference took place earlier today with Ministers Blair and Mendicino to update on the federal government's actions towards the management of the protests. A rough transcript of the remarks and of the ensuing question-answer period is attached for reference.

- The Ottawa Police Service also held a media availability where Deputy Chief Bell provided remarks and answered questions from the media. A synopsis is attached for reference.

- A total of four (4) media requests have been received today so far. The two latest ones are in relation to the GoFundMe potential RCMP investigation (approved lines provided), as well as on the number of RCMP being deployed to support the OPS (response pending).
